

I do not want the Federal Government FCC to implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I believe the control should remain at a State level. I enjoy not receiving the annoying phone calls at home. I was ready to drop my home service and use strictly a cell phone until Indiana's Telephone Privacy law went into effect. I will definitely drop my regular line service if the FCC changes laws that would allow these calls to start again.